A MESSAGE FROM SAVAGE

Dear Customer,

We live in times of extraordinary change, where technological advancements in industrial equipment and design are driving market growth in critical ways. This is perhaps best felt on the front lines of transportation and transloading.

Since 1946, Savage's focus has been to do the right thing, find a better way, and make a difference. This means seizing the opportunities of our day, making critical improvements to how we gather, process, and transport the materials that matter the most to you.

As you seek to ensure the longevity of your company, we want to be a part of your story. Our robust transloading network can give you the expert services and infrastructure you need to execute with confidence. Likewise, our tools and processes will help you move with agility as those plans evolve.

As the world becomes more reliant on your materials and products, transloading will be the key to sustained growth. It gives you a wider reach to meet your Customers where they are, and it can be more cost effective and sustainable.

Savage's transload experience comes from:

- 50+ transload terminals nationwide
- 300+ unique products handles
- 3,500+ different Customers served

We hope that as you learn about the tools and talent available to you through Savage, you will get inspired by what your business can become as we work together.

Good luck, and be safe.

Dan Price
